

Signs of Canine Motion Sickness

Travelling with your dog can be challenging if they experience canine motion sickness.

If your dog shows any of these common signs during car rides, they may be among the 1 in 4 dogs affected.¹

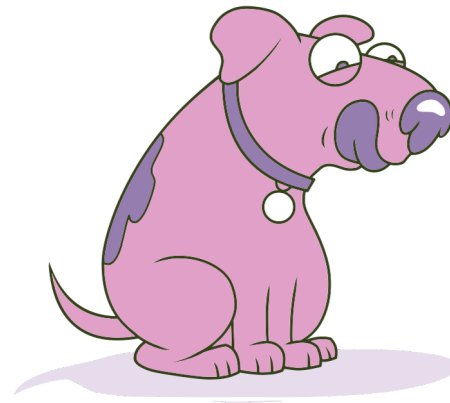

The good news? Canine motion sickness is preventable, so your whole family can enjoy stress-free road trips together.

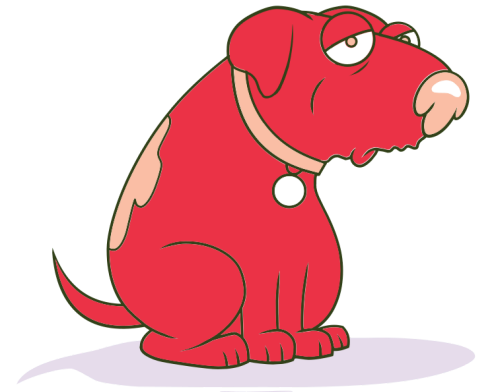

Vomiting

Excessive panting

Excessive lip licking

Inactivity

Shaking

Restlessness

Drooling

Speak to our veterinary team about motion sickness medication specifically for dogs.